#ApproachingRishihood

Standing up in the glorious light of Rishihood each one of us will be a giant

- Swami Vivekananda

Each being has the potential to be better than it is. The journey is fueled by a deep desire to know (jigyasa), a will to take action (chikirsha), and the search for joy (ananda).

When we are on this journey towards greatness, we are approaching rishihood.

PLEASE NOTE:

“Approaching Rishihood” is not a tag line;
it’s the theme upon which to build your stories.

Crafting Content

Every brand has its own style. This style is shared through the way we speak. The words we use, the way sentences are built, and the tone of our talk makes us Rishihood. Here's how we do it all the time.

Examples

Reach Further

SUPPORT FOR OUR PLATFORM

“Reach Further” is comparative. Lots of universities have “reach.” Only Berkeley has the depth of talent, diversity of skills and deep-seated drive to do things that continually change the world. We reach further. When we “reach further” than others, we must constantly reimagine what’s possible—and go beyond what anyone else has done before. That means we have to have attitude: impatience that comes with a willingness to challenge convention. The combination of those qualities is how we shape the future—which is more than evident in the results, successes and breakthroughs constantly occurring on our campus and throughout our alumni community.

HOW TO USE IT

TO GUT-CHECK VOICE
Does the tone of what you’re writing capture the spirit of “Reach Further”? Does it sound like the personality of someone who embodies the idea?

TO STAY ON MESSAGE
Move beyond facts whenever possible. By addressing the motivation behind our successes, we can create a more emotional tie with the audience.

Our Key Strengths

CONVICTION / EXCELLENCE / SCALE / DIVERSITY

These are four key strengths that differentiate Berkeley from other universities. If each communication message we develop leverages one or more of these strengths, our creative platform will come to life with depth, breadth and longevity.

REMEMBER
“Reach Further” is not a tag line; it’s the theme upon which to build your stories.

How to Use Them

You can reach further with conviction. Connect your message to an unwavering belief, cause or higher calling.

You can reach further with excellence. Share stories about individual or collective achievements that outshine anything attempted before.

You can reach further with scale. Demonstrate the impact of Berkeley’s efforts to improve the world around us or change an individual’s life in an extraordinary way.

You can reach further with diversity. Show the unique ways in which Berkeley connects disciplines, projects and people to create new paradigms that can transform the world.

Rishihood University's visual identity is a heartfelt manifestation of its brand ethos. It's not merely words, but an inspirational launchpad for the aesthetics, ambiance, and voice of our communications.

Brand Identity

Our Logo & The Crest

The simple and memorable foundation of our identity

Rishihood University's logo features a 'crest' to symbolize the university's holistic learning approach. The “r” in the center represents the university's name, and its style conveys a sense of movement and progress. Overall the logo reflects our focus on innovation and commitment towards shaping a better future.

PLEASE NOTE:

The Rishihood logo should never be recreated or typeset. Only official logo files should be used in communications.

Official logo files can be downloaded from <Get Link>

Main Logo

Main Logo // Primary Colour Usage

The primary color option for our logo is the Rishihood Red, Orange & Deep Grey. It is intended to be used on lighter backgrounds and images in order to maintain legibility.

Main Logo // Primary Colour Usage

Another acceptable color option is to reverse the logo out to White on darker backgrounds and images.

Main Logo // Secondary Colour Usage

The primary usage option is preferred. However, in more casual usage, such as merchandise, the logo may be used in a form with the coloured crest and white typeface on a background of Rishihood grey or black. The legibility of this version is compromised when used on other background colors, including beige.

Main Logo // Limited Colour logo

The logo can appear in Grey or Black only for black-and-white and grayscale scenarios.

Logo Usage // Clear Space

To protect the logo from other visual elements, it is important that it is surrounded by a minimum amount of clear space. No other graphic elements should encroach within this area.

THE ‘DOUBLE O’ RULE

To ensure that clear space is maintained around the logo for legibility and prominence, photos, text and graphic elements must follow the guidelines illustrated here. Use the letter “o” stacked up vertically on another as a measuring tool to help maintain clearance.

Size:

To maintain full legibility, never reproduce the logo at widths smaller than 1 inch (for print) or 200 pixels (for screen). There is no maximum size limit, but use discretion when sizing the logo. It should never be the most dominant element on the page, but instead should live comfortably and clearly as an identifying mark.

> 1 in or 200 px

Logo Usage // Dont's

The Rishihood logo, crafted from the Adobe Garamond typeface, is a redesigned, clear, and impactful wordmark. Don't use Adobe Garamond or any other typefaces, and avoid Hindi, Sanskrit or any other languages to recreate it. Any modification of this logo is not permitted.

X SIZE

Do not change the size relationship of the symbol to the wordmark in the combination.

X PLACEMENT

Do not change the placement of the symbol in the combination mark.

X PLACEMENT

Only the primary and secondary logos are used for the brand. No other lock-ups should be created.

X SCALE

Do not change the scale of the logo. The proportions of the logo should not be altered in any way.

X COLOUR

Never stray from the primary color palette. Logo can only be used as per colour usage guidelines.

X EFFECTS

Do not apply any special effects to the logo

X OUTLINE

Do not outline the logo.

X ROTATE

Do not rotate the symbol from its original lockup.

X RECREATE

Do not recreate the logo using other typefaces, and avoid Hindi, Sanskrit or any other languages to recreate it.

The Crest

Secondary Logos

When space is limited, secondary logo can be used.

rishihood

Restricted Logos

Reserved exclusively for authorized usage, our restrictive logos offer two variations of the logo design. Please note that prior permission is required for their implementation, ensuring brand integrity and control.

School Logos

A lockup is a design that visually indicates the relationship between your unit and the larger university brand. Rather than creating a unique “logo” for your unit—which leads to confusion and a diluted brand image—use this brand architecture system to “lock up” your unit with the Rishihood logo.

When absolutely necessary, such as during official communications, the sub-brand logo can be deployed. For marketing collateral, the main brand logo should always be our first choice, following the provided structure. If it's still essential to use the sub-brand logo, we should consider replacing the main logo with it, instead of displaying both logos together.

Logo Signature System

This is a quick reference to the full suit of the Rishihood University logo signature system organized by role and usage. Do not alter, redraw or add any additional words or graphic elements to any logos. Always use approved and provided electronic artwork.

MAIN BRAND

Must be included on all materials.

SCHOOLS

Can stand alone, without an institutional logo

CENTRE

Can stand alone, without an institutional logo

EVENTS & PROGRAMS

Must appear within visual proximity to an institutional or school logo

PLEASE NOTE:

Not all departmental programs or activities should have a branded logo or lockup. There are cases when having a branded lockup is detrimental to the greater university brand. Please consult with the Office of Communications before creating a logo or lockup for your program.

Our Name

There are several names used to represent us. This section is designed to eliminate any confusion. Our logo prominently features our name, emphasizing 'Rishihood'. Maintaining this consistency in our name across all content is equally crucial.

In first references, use:

Formal uses, such as departments, may use:

DO NOT USE

Brand Identity

Brand Architecture Guidelines

OBJECTIVE

The primary objective of having a brand architecture system is to provide clarity about the Rishihood brand and to help standardize its application. We've strategically evolved the university's identity mark system for a more cohesive image and experience.

A lockup is a design that visually indicates the relationship between your unit and the larger university brand. Rather than creating a unique "logo" for your unit—which leads to confusion and a diluted brand image—use this brand architecture system to "lock up" your unit with the Rishihood logo.

All unit lockups must be approved by the <Office of Communications>. We can also consult on or create your lockups for you. Email your lockups or questions to us at namaste@createcluster.com

We've created a system that:

- Looks uniform across all the institution's diverse entities.
- Helps schools, initiatives and units create lockups that clearly identify their relationship with the university.
- Works flexibly with various applications and size constraints.
- Allows for multiple layers of information.
- Shows how more independent entities relate to the university.

PLEASE NOTE:

Not all departmental programs or activities should have a branded logo or lockup. There are cases when having a branded lockup is detrimental to the greater university brand. Please consult with the Office of Communications before creating a logo or lockup for your program.

Student groups or organizations are not eligible to create a sub brand.

The way we use type is crucial to making our designs look thoughtful and professional. Use these tips to make sure typography is consistent.

Line spacing, called leading, is critical to setting professional-looking type that is easy to read. Leading should be set tight, but not too tight. The Montserrat Family generally looks best with leading set slightly loose.

Leading that is too loose leaves too much pause between lines.

35 pt. type / 57 pt. leading

Leading that is too tight leaves too little pause between lines.

35 pt. type / 32 pt. leading

When leading is correct, the reader won't even notice.

35 pt. type / 40 pt. leading

Correct letter spacing, called tracking, is needed to make the type easy to read. The Montserrat Family is best set at its default setting, and optical kerning should be used when available.

Tracking that is too loose leaves too much space between letters.

+200 tracking

Tracking that is too tight leaves too little space between letters.

-40 tracking

When tracking is correct, the reader won't even notice.

0 tracking

NOTE:

A good rule of thumb is to start with leading that is two points higher than the point size of the text. This won't always be right, but leading can most easily be adjusted from there.
